

Preamble

Being desirous of promoting a better acquaintance and comradeship between the members of the Grand Army Posts in Norfolk county, - we the undersigned hereby form this Norfolk County Grand Army Association, designed to advance the interests of the order in every way possible, by holding quarterly meetings in different parts of the County, in conjunction (as far as possible) with the Woman's Relief Corps Association.

The morning session will be devoted to the business of the association, and in the afternoon will be held a joint, semi-public meeting, with exercises of a social nature, whereby the patriotic interest of outsiders will be awakened, to the welfare of the local post with which it is held.

In Memorium.

Whereas a Most Just and a Most Merciful God has decreed in his own good time to call home Comrade Henry Elbert, Barnes, our Past Department Chaplain from our circle to dwell in those mansions above, prepared for his chosen ones. And

Whereas in the death of Comrade Barnes this Association has lost one of its most devoted and loyal members. Whose wise and able Counsel and kind ministrations will be ever missed in this association, and the family a most loving and tender Father, and

Whereas, Comrade Barnes, by his ever genial and amiable disposition endeared himself to all of his comrades, whose memory will ever be cherished by this Association. Therefore be it

Resolved, that this Association extend to the family of our late Comrade Barnes, the deepest sympathy in this their loss and bereavement and would ever pray that the mantle of God's love and consolation may ever enshroud his loved ones to protect and care for them until we shall meet him face to face.

Rise my soul and stretch thy wings.
Thy better portion trace.
Rise from transitory things
Towards Heaven thy native place
Sun and moon and stars decay
Time shall soon this earth remove.
Rise my soul and hasten away
To seats prepared above.

Rivers to the ocean run.
Nor stay in all their course
Fine ascending seeks the sun
Both speed them to their source,
So a soul that's born of God.

Pants to view his glorious face.
Upward tends to his abode
To rest in his embrace.

Resolved that these Resolutions be spread upon the records of this Association, and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.
